

TEACHING RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES

Bryan Ruiz says: "The strong union of the group gives confidence "

Ekkono questions:

Why do you think team unity is important?

What value do you think can help you get to know your teammates more and better to join more?

The value of Empathy:

Ekkono considers that a very important quality to work to achieve the union of the components of the team is the empathy.

Empathy is the ability to put yourself in the place of your partner, and will help you better understand his behavior in certain circumstances and why he makes the decisions.

Empathy is a positive attitude that will improve coexistence among teammates.
