

TEACHING RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES

Messi says: "The day that looks like there is nothing to improve, will be a boring day"

Ekkono questions:

Why do you think Messi believes that one day without improvement will be boring?

Do you think Messi can improve every day?

In what aspects do you think he could improve?

The value of Excellence:

Excellence in sport is related to the ability to always try to do things as well as possible.

It is very important that children strive to achieve it, but considering that the most important thing is not the result or the final performance. What really matters is the attitude of pursuit of excellence.
