Ivan Rakitic: “The smartest thing I ever did was not to give up.”

Ekkono questions:

What does it mean to give up?

What happens when you give up? How do you feel?

The value of : Not to give up

Never giving up is believing in yourself, in your potential, in your possibilities. It also means accepting a failure so that you can learn from it. It means not abandoning your values and continuing to train and push yourself.
